Executive summary

Véronique Laury, CEO
We are a stronger company as a result of the transformation

- Building of Kingfisher ‘engine’ nearing completion, with compelling benefits coming through for customers
  - One single buying organisation established; 50% of product (COGS) unified
  - Continued growth in sales and margin from unified & unique ranges
  - Unified IT platform roll out substantially complete
  - Implemented finance shared services in 3 operating companies
  - Achieved c. £100m of operational efficiencies over 3 years

- Mixed financial performance over three years, including FY 18/19

- Transformation enabled overall gross margin for the year to be maintained

- Balance sheet and cash generation remain strong; mitigation stock eliminated

- Returned c. £1.3bn to shareholders over 3 years
The transformation is delivering and we are building a more profitable business over the medium term

- Transformation has delivered in line with our original plan; benefits outweighed by external environment and business underperformance

- Remain convinced in ability to deliver significant further financial and customer benefits from transformation, at lower cost than planned

- Separation of transformation benefits (+£500m) from rest of the business (BAU) no longer reflects how we manage the business

- Measuring our success through growth in sales, gross margin, retail profit and ROCE over the medium term

Cautionary note regarding forward looking statements

Certain information contained in this presentation may constitute “forward-looking statements” (including within the meaning of the safe harbour provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995), which can be identified by the use of terms such as “may”, “will”, “would”, “could”, “should”, “expect”, “anticipate”, “project”, “estimate”, “intend”, “continue”, “target”, “plan”, “goal”, “aim” or “believe” (or the negatives thereof) or other variations thereon or comparable terminology. These forward-looking statements include all matters that are not historical facts and include statements regarding the Company’s intentions, beliefs or current expectations concerning, among other things, the Company’s results of operations, financial condition, changes in global or regional trade conditions, changes in tax rates, liquidity, prospects, growth and strategies. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks, assumptions and uncertainties that could cause actual events or results or actual performance of the Company to differ materially from those reflected or contemplated in such forward-looking statements. No representation or warranty is made as to the achievement or reasonableness of and no reliance should be placed on such forward-looking statements.

The Company does not undertake any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect any change in circumstances or in the Company’s expectations.

Steps taken to manage Brexit risks

Products
No significant change to stock

Tariffs & Customs
- WTO tariff rate: zero-rate tariffs anticipated on most categories in a no-deal scenario
- Customs measures implemented to avoid delays. Increased number of ports for deep-sea imports, and secured trusted trader status in the UK
- Working with vendors to manage transition

People
Brexit-related retention and hiring not a material issue to date
